

Resolution about Access to Rutgers Email List

WHEREAS: the relationship between the administration and the employees of the university represented in collective bargaining units has never been more contentious; and

WHEREAS: the entire Rutgers community needs to know the positions of both groups on key issues related to the negotiations; and

WHEREAS: the administration has access to email lists that reach the entire community; and

WHEREAS: the administration has refused to provide access to those lists;

THEREFORE, be it resolved that the Senate calls on the administration to provide the collective bargaining units, as well as the University Senate, with access to the email lists that the administration has been using to present its positions.
