

Reaffirmation of Endorsement of Freedom of Speech

The Rutgers University Senate endorses the freedom of speech, assembly and press enshrined in the United States Constitution, and condemns any action by any entity within the University that prevents or pre-empts that right without adequate notice and due process.